

High School English Teacher

Trinity Christian Academy of Lexington, Kentucky, is seeking a creative and inspiring High School English Teacher to integrate Christian faith with English education.

Successful applicants will possess a solid Christian faith and will be passionate about teaching English in a manner consistent with Scripture and classical education. Classroom experience in teaching High School English is required. Applicants must have a minimum of a BS/BA in a related field. A MS or MA is preferred.

Interested candidates should email a cover letter and resume to Luke McAnally, Principal of the School of Rhetoric, at lmcanally@trinitylex.org. For more information on our school and to view our application, please visit www.trinitylex.org.